

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 21, 2025

BARNSTABLE, MA – On Wednesday, June 25 at 7:00 PM, the Cape Cod Speaker Series will present its second dynamic lecture of the 2025 season, “Russia’s War Against the West.” Presented in partnership with the John F. Kennedy Hyannis Museum, the event will be held at Cape Cinema, 35 Hope Ln., Dennis, MA.

Former U.S. Ambassador to Russia and Deputy Secretary of State John Sullivan offers a rare inside look at US-Russia relations during a critical historical moment. Drawing from his acclaimed memoir Midnight in Moscow, Sullivan shares what unfolded the night Vladimir Putin launched his full-scale invasion of Ukraine and the diplomatic efforts behind the scenes.

Tickets are $35 for general admission; students and faculty attend for free, limited seats available. Supporters can also purchase a $75 CCSS SUPPORTER ticket, with $40 tax-deductible. Reserve your seat at capecodspeakers.org.

Designed to spark meaningful dialogue around today’s most urgent issues, the Cape Cod Speaker Series brings leading voices in journalism, diplomacy, politics, the sciences and climate change to the Cape community. The 2025 season features four thought-provoking evenings with prominent national figures and renowned experts.

To learn more or reserve your tickets for any of the lectures, visit www.capecodspeakers.org. Consider joining the Cape Cod Speaker Series’ mailing list and following the organization on social media to keep apprised of new speakers as they are added.

About the Cape Cod Speaker Series:

The Cape Cod Speaker Series, Inc. (CCSS) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization founded by local residents dedicated to bringing diverse voices, cultural opportunities and educational support to Cape Cod. After setting aside funds for future operations, any surplus generated by CCSS will go to providing financial aid to Cape Cod Community College students. The 2025 series is made possible through the generous support of our community partners and sponsors, including The Cooperative Bank of Cape Cod, BNY Wealth, Eastern Bank, Cape Cod 5, Cape Cod Community College, The Academy for Lifelong Learning of Cape Cod, the John F. Kennedy Hyannis Museum, the Cape Cod Chamber of Commerce and the Cape Cod Climate Change Collaborative.
