Jewellery, however, should be chosen with care. Vikar Ahmed is a designer whose work goes beyond just making jewellery. With decades of experience, he has gained a reputation for creating stunning pieces that tell a story, each representing the wearer's journey and dreams. Every item crafted in his studio is made with great attention to detail and a dedication to perfection. Introducing The Glory Treasure engagement ring – a stunning work of art made with care and precision. After seven months of careful selection, the perfect diamonds, totalling an impressive 20 carats, were chosen. Each diamond is of the highest quality, with colour grades from D to F and clarity from IF to VVS, ensuring a lifetime of brilliance, just like true love. At the centre of this remarkable ring lies a D centre Diamond, known for its flawless cut, colour, and clarity. Certified as TYPE IIA by GIA, this diamond is one of the purest available, with superior transparency. The ring is also accompanied by 18 GIA certificates, guaranteeing the authenticity of each natural diamond. This ring was designed in collaboration with NFL star Deshaun Watson, who wanted to create the perfect symbol of love for his partner, Jilly Anais. Valued between 2 million USD and 2.5 million USD, this ring is among the most expensive celebrity engagement rings. Crafted in Germany's gemstone capital by renowned jeweller Vikar Ahmed, it truly displays skilled craftsmanship.
