“Relationship Impacts:
3 Directives to Believers”
Acts 18:1-11

1. A believer is to be a missionary in their city. Vs. 1-4

Acts 18:1-4, “After this Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. 2 And he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. And he went to see them, 3 and because he was of the same trade he stayed with them and worked, for they were tentmakers by trade. 4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and tried to persuade Jews and Greeks.”

Are you sharing the gospel to those you live and work around? If not, what can you do to change that? _____

Do you use your time in class or at your job to tell others about Jesus or to invite them to church? _____
If you are homeschooled, what are you doing to have contact with others to share your faith? _____

2. A believer will face opposition to those they try to witness to. Vs. 5-8

Acts 18:5-8, “When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul was occupied with the word, testifying to the Jews that the Christ was Jesus. 6 And when they opposed and reviled him, he shook out his garments and said to them, “Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.” 7 And he left there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God. His house was next door to the synagogue. 8 Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, together with his entire household. And many of the Corinthians hearing Paul believed and were baptized.”

Have you faced opposition or ridicule when you have tried to share the gospel? How did you handle it? _____

Has past opposition caused you to be afraid to tell others the truth about Jesus? What needs to happen to get over your fears? _____

Who are your friends that encourage you to tell others about Jesus? If you don't have any, then what needs to change? _____

3. A believer will receive instruction and encouragement from the Lord. Vs. 9-11

Acts 18:9-11, “And the Lord said to Paul one night in a vision, “Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent, 10 for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many in this city who are my people.” 11 And he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.”

Illustration: On the Enemy: Be Encouraged

1. When the devil brings up your past, bring up his future.
2. The man who is fully surrendered to the Lord will never deliberately surrender to the Enemy.
3. When adversity is most ready to strike us, God is most ready to strengthen us.
4. The devil is an equal opportunity employer--all who work for him will go to hell.
5. The Lord adds and multiplies; the devil subtracts and divides.
6. Don't permit Satan to remind you of what God has already forgotten.
7. Satan trembles when he sees the weakest saint upon his knees.
